Save to Win States

The green states on the map have passed prize-linked savings laws that allows credit unions to offer Save to Win accounts to state residents. Those residents can search for a participating credit union by using the drop down feature at the top of the page. Credit unions interested in offering Save to Win to their members can click here for more information.

